

When a worker dies,

everyone suffers.

National Day of Mourning

April 28th is dedicated to honouring the memory of workers killed and injured on the job. Every year there are about 1,000 work-related deaths in Canada. Hundreds of thousands more sustain lost time injuries or suffer from occupational disease. It doesn't have to be this way.

Make safety your first priority on every job you do.

Remember, it's your life. Don't leave work without it.
